

MISSION
VIEJO
LIBRARY

Student Success Guide

Students, keep this guide handy as you dive into your school work. The Mission Viejo Library offers lots of free tools and services to help you succeed in your academics!

ONLINE RESOURCES

Free access to tutor.com, where students in grades K-12 can connect one-on-one with a live tutor for personalized homework help in over 60 subjects.

A Service of The Princeton Review

Homework Central offers research resources for elementary, middle, and high school students. Get newspaper, magazine, and scholarly articles on a variety of topics, including world cultures, current events, and social issues.

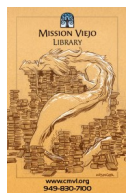

Britannica School Edition is a digital version of the Encyclopedia Britannica that allows students to tailor their research to their academic level.

Brainfuse VetNow/JobNow has test prep tools and study guides covering a range of subjects for middle and high school students.

Access these resources and more at cityofmissionviejo.org/online-resources.

LIBRARY CARDS

All of our online resources require a Mission Viejo Library card. To apply for a card, go to the library catalog and click on "My Account" in the upper right menu, then click on "Register" within the pop-up box. You will receive your card number on the next business day, and can use it right away. To pick up your library card in person, visit our Checkout Desk. A parent or guardian must be present to show identification and to sign for library users under the age of 18.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Students in grades 6 - 12 are invited to write for the Mission Viejo Library Teen Voice Blog, a reading recommendation resource for teens, by teens. For every post you write, you'll earn one hour of service credit. Writing for the blog is a completely virtual activity and can be done from home. Apply today!

PERSONALIZED LIBRARY HELP

Need expert help with our resources, a book recommendation, or help navigating your research? Librarians are here to assist you! Visit, call, or email us.

Mission Viejo Library
100 Civic Center
Mission Viejo, CA 92691
949-830-7100 | libreference@cityofmissionviejo.org